I would like to congratulate Rogue USMC, and Kathy, for tying the knot last month. Be sure to read Gabe's article about how it all came about.

Hope you both have many great years ahead, even with each other...

Like most of the country, I'm worried about this upcoming presidential election. I said it in April, with over 150 million or more American's who are eligible to run for president, how did we end up with these two (the only ones that have a chance anyway) that have the ability to fuck up this county to the point of no return and a complete collapse of our republic as the founders fought and gave their lives for.

Clinton, most likely has always been a dishonest, unethical, pathological liar even before she was fired from her job during Watergate. Her supervisor, Jerry Zeifman, fired Hillary from the committee staff and refused to give her a letter of recommendation. He said "she was a liar. An unethical, dishonest lawyer. She conspired to violate the Constitution, the rules of the House, the rules of the committee and the rules of confidentiality." Read the complete article about this by Dan Calabrese at <http://www.eohistory.info/2013/hillaryHistory.htm> as well as a complete history of Hillary Rodham Clinton. If you vote for her after reading this, either you did not read this or you are a fool.

And as for Trump, who can't seem to think for even 10 seconds before he opens his mouth and pisses off just about everyone every other hour, he is obviously not a professional politician. Other than he has more money than Bill and Hillary, and most of us poor working class, that makes him somehow closer to "We the People" and maybe what this country needs at this time is someone that most liberals, Democrats and ugly woman (I saw the audience at the DNC event) dispise. If these are our two choices I would rather keep a in the world with suicide bombers everywhere put a real damper on it. Nevertheless, we will have a great time and I can't wait for the departure date to arrive.

The last event I covered in June was the USMV MC South Broward Chapter 2's Annual. It was held at the Tin Cup Neighborhood Grill in Cooper City. I have been passing this place for years on my way to the monthly SE ABATE meetings at the American Legion. Never once did I consider stopping there for a drink. The Tin Cup was pretty nice. The drinks were ice cold and quickly served. Out back "Thunder Head" set up to entertain the crowd. In addition to that a major

The countdown is on. On September 8th, my wife and I will be homeward bound to Bremen, Germany. As much as I am excited to spend some quality time with my family and friends I am not really looking forward to the flying part. All the crazy things that are going on

The 21st Annual South Florida Tattoo Expo has finally arrived at the Coral Springs Marriott Hotel at Heron Bay, taking place August 12 through 14. The hotel is located at 11775 Heron Bay Blvd. in Coral Springs. This event benefits the Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital in Hollywood, FL. Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital is one of the area's leading pediatric care hospitals offering comprehensive health services and programs in an atmosphere that is child friendly. An all new free-standing facility has opened in Broward County for the treatment of children with cancer and many other special needs.

The South Florida Tattoo Expo has raised over $850,000 for the hospital. Using the entire hotel, this incredible event will feature some of the best tattoo artists from all over the US. Tattooing and body piercing will be done on premises all weekend long and their work will be on display at their booths to give you an idea which artist you would like to use to bring your next tattoo from your dreams to reality. There will be over 120 booths throughout the entire ballrooms and hotel, featuring some of the coolest clothing, jewelry, shoes and purses just to name a few. These items are not something you will find at your local Walmart or Spencers or any other retail store in South Florida.

There will be music throughout the weekend, including rockabilly band favorites "Slip and the Spinouts" and "Jeff Vitolo and the Quarter Mile Rebels", as well as heavy metal bands "1000 Pound of Thrust" and "The Slaves Are Mad". There will be a vintage pinup contest on Saturday night where contestants must be dressed vintage from head to toe and will be judged accordingly. This year the South Florida Pinup Scene will be hosting this contest. Morgan LaRue and her Shimmy Shake Revue burlesque troop will be performing burlesque shows on Friday and Saturday nights. Also poolside on Friday and Saturday nights will feature a suspension show, not for the faint of heart, where performers are suspended in mid-air by hooks inserted through their skin. A show, if never seen before, you would not want to miss! In addition, Scary Mary and her Evolpets will be performing their one of a kind fetish show – and trust me, Mary and her Evolpets will not disappoint! There will also be a Wet T-shirt contest and Exotic Piercing contest poolside Saturday afternoon for cash prizes. Every year these contests get crazier and crazier.

On Saturday afternoon the judging in front of a live audience for the tattoo contests will begin at 1:00pm inside the hotel lobby on the main stage. A panel of judges will have the painstaking task of picking the top three contestants in each of many categories. On Sunday from 10am until 4pm there will be a custom and classic car and bike show in front of the hotel, in the main parking lot with just over 200 cars, hosted by the South Florida Cruisers. There will be trophies for the top 65 vehicles which will be given out at 4pm. If you wish to enter, show up with your ride by 9:30am the day of the event or you can pre-register by calling Steve at 954-963-2828. Also, Sunday at 4pm inside the main hotel lobby will be the awards ceremony, announcing the winners of the tattoo contests and trophies will be awarded. There will be quite a few celebrity guests making appearances this year such as musicians, sports figures and actors.

The cost is $20 per day or $40 for a 3-day weekend pass for this one of a kind event. No outside food or beverage is to be brought inside the hotel, but there will be plenty of food and beverages (both alcoholic & non-alcoholic) available for purchase at the hotel.

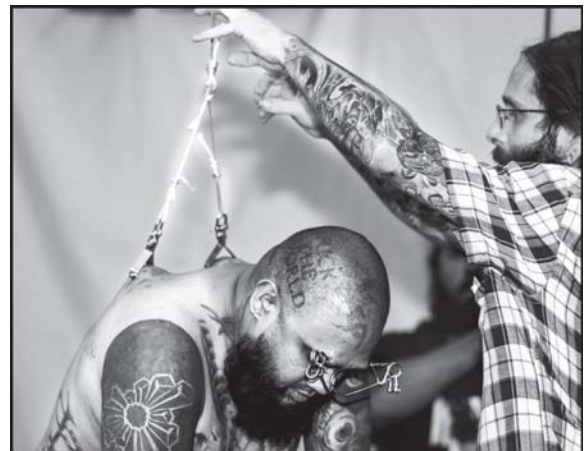

If you plan on getting a room so you can party and have a good time one night – or all weekend – without having to drive home, please call the Marriott direct at 954-753-5598 and make sure to mention the Tattoo Expo for the great special rate. Also, be sure act ASAP as the hotel does sell out for this event!

For more info visit our website at southfloridatattooexpo.com or visit our Facebook page. There is so much more I can keep on talking about regarding the Expo but you need to come out and see for yourself, while supporting 1000's of sick children at Joe Dimaggio Children's Hospital.

On August 7th, the Miami Wings of Gold MC will be having a party at their clubhouse. On August 8 through 14 Sturgis is taking place, so if anyone is taking the trip, be safe and have a great time. On August 14 the AOA MC will be hosting their 49th Annual at their clubhouse. Anyone leaving the Expo can finish off the day with their great party. Also, on August 20th Los Coquis MC is having a party for Smokey and Preacher at their clubhouse and Outcast MC are having their party on August 27 at their clubhouse. (The Southern MC Annual Teddy Bear Run is cancelled) See the SFPC Calendar on page 33, and most event flyers for complete information.

Any finally, this year's Toy Run Raffle Bike will be a 2017 Street Glide Special FLHXS. Raffle books are being printed and should be distributed before Phil Peterson's Key West Poker Run – so everyone can start selling/buying their tickets!

Until next month, B-cool! Tattoo Dave Amchir

Good News

By Doug Scofield

DougWOTR@gmail.com

This year we have had to say good-bye to several friends; the latest here in Port St. Lucie was Todd Price, AKA "Bouncer", Rough Riders MC. Bouncer was taken way too soon by a careless driver. My heart and prayers goes out to the clubs and family and friends of those that have lost loved ones.

The following comes from a devotional that I try to read on a daily basis. This book is a series of sermons given by Oswald Chambers and compiled into a book by his wife.

My Utmost For His Highest has had a important impact on my life and has helped me tremendously to stay focused on what He has for me.

Please take the time to read this sermon by Oswald Chambers. It has helped me in times when I have had to say goodbye to someone I love. I pray that it will touch you as we all will deal with this subject matter in the course of our lives. Remember, Jesus is always there and we should trust in Him as we go through times of sorrow.

Receiving Yourself in the Fires of Sorrow...

"... what shall I say? "Father, save Me from this hour." But for this purpose I came to this hour. "Father, glorify Your name." John 12:27-28
 As a saint of God, my attitude toward sorrow and difficulty should not be to ask that they be prevented, but to ask that God protect me so that I may remain what He created me to be, in spite of all my fires of sorrow. Our Lord received Himself, accepting His position and realizing His purpose, in the midst of the fire of sorrow. He was saved not from the hour, but out of the hour.

We say that there ought to be no sorrow, but there is sorrow, and we have to accept and receive ourselves in its fires. If we try to evade sorrow, refusing to deal with it, we are foolish. Sorrow is one of the biggest facts in life, and there is no use in saying it should not be. Sin, sorrow, and suffering are, and it is not for us to say that God has made a mistake in allowing them.

Sorrow removes a great deal of a person's shallowness, but it does not always make that person better. Suffering either gives me to myself or it destroys me. You cannot find or receive yourself through success, because you lose your head over pride. And you cannot receive yourself through the monotony of your daily life, because you give in to complaining. The only way to find yourself is in the fires of sorrow. Why it should be this way is immaterial. The fact is that it is true in the Scriptures and in human experience. You can always recognize who has been through the fires of sorrow and received himself, and you know that you can go to Him in your moment of trouble and find that He has plenty of time for you. But if a person has not been through the fires of sorrow, he is apt to be contemptuous, having no respect or time for you, only turning you away. If you will receive yourself in the fires of sorrow, God will make you nourishment for other people.

We are all getting older and we have chosen a dangerous lifestyle where citizens just don't watch for bikes and with cell phones it has become even more dangerous. I love you all and I pray for the motorcycle community for Devine protection and guidance. God bless you and remember Jesus died for bikers too!

If we at Calvary Chapel MM can be of any service please e-mail me or give me a call at 954-448-1235.

The Times We Live In

CORRUPTION...

Lessons Learned???

In the fourth century, the Roman Empire crumbled after a 500-year run as the world's one and only total badass. Several things led to that inglorious ending.

First: Financial crisis. Rome was slowly falling apart as a result of financial crisis due to constant wars and overspending that emptied imperial coffers, created oppressive taxation and inflation and served to widen gap between rich and poor.

Second: A weakening military. For most of its history, Rome's military kicked ass in the ancient world. But during their decline, the makeup of once mighty legions began to change. Unable to recruit enough soldiers from Roman citizenry, emperors began hiring foreign mercenaries so the legions were filled with Germanic Goths and other barbarians that didn't have much skin in the game and really didn't give a flying fu#k about Rome or Romans. In fact they hated the Romans who had been beating the shit out of them for the past couple of hundred years. While fierce warriors, they had little or no loyalty to the empire and often turned against their Roman employers. In fact many, including Visigoth King Alaric who sacked Rome, had earned military stripes while serving in Roman legions.

Third: Government corruption and political instability played a significant part. Rome's sheer size made it difficult to govern and a series of weak, ineffective and inconsistent leaders served to magnify the problem. Political rot also extended into the Roman Senate, which failed to temper excesses due to its own forms of corruption and incompetence. As the situation worsened, civic pride waned and Romans lost trust in their leadership which should sound ominously similar in regard to current congressional conditions given their 14% approval rating.

FAST FORWARD TO TODAY...

First: Obviously we have financial crisis – nearly 21 trillion in debt.

Second: Weakening Military. Obama's policies have compromised strategic positions with his incompetent leadership and poor handling of events in the Middle East and Eastern Europe. Additionally, Congress has not provided funding which has resulted in fewer capable personnel and equipment and they have also politically handicapped field commanders with stupid shit like the current ridiculous rules of engagement!

Third: Corruption - When government becomes so corrupt that laws are obviously being bent to favor those in power it is an indicator of impending collapse. Many countries have suffered this same outcome... one set of laws for aristocracy and one for us peasants and peons. Of course, the People learn, fight back, threaten the established power base, revolution ensues, they are slaughtered in the streets, society falls and is taken over by outside interests. I think it is fair to say many Latinos... particularly the Cubans here in South Florida, will agree no citizen is safe when law is manipulated to favor those who hold political power and that is one of the major reasons they came to the United States. The same might be said of the Jews during the 1930's, the South Vietnamese, Bosnians, and Czechoslovakians that were under the Soviets, as well as many others that have had to suffer under corrupt and oppressive governments.

So what current indicators do We the People have in regard to the extent of corruption?

First: it appears laws are beginning to be blatantly ignored when applied to certain segments of the population as demonstrated by Director Comey's refusal to indict in the case of Hillary's compromise of National Security.

Second: There is no doubt that corruption is linked to manipulation of money. In this regard consider the poster child of political corruption called the "Clinton Foundation."

The Clinton Foundation is a registered tax-exempt organization and claims to be a Public Health Program. In 2013, the Foundation reported $151M in income. Noticeably Foundation income jumped $92.9M from 2012 to 2013. Growth that was said to have been primarily attributed to an increase in contributions... a remarkable 167% increase! It is reasonable to say this would be an "unusual" growth pattern for any LEGITIMATE BUSINESS. The reality is Ponzi schemes don't even do this well! This organization is a textbook case on how to hide foreign money and repackage it. The first thing done is to create a foreign "charity", in this case the Clinton's set it up in Canada. Foreign donors and governments can then donate to this charity. In this case, large numbers did — contributing mega millions which of course was done out of benevolence and goodness of their hearts and those donating expected nothing in return. For example... some might consider it "reasonable" to assume Vladimir Putin's buddies woke up one day and said, "Fu#k... we need to donate to the Canadians!!!" And then sent a couple of million to the Canadian charity. The foreign charity then bundles these donations and makes a massive donation to the Clinton Foundation. Interestingly... Canadian law prohibits identification of individual donors. The Foundation then "spends" a minor portion... like 10%... for legitimate programs leaving the remaining 90% to enrich...

Black Sun - White Sand is a novel that relates how terrorist activity could bring about the downfall of the United States and in doing so describes current social decline, economic inequity, government excess and the general denial by the public that it could ever happen here. The main character tries to tell, but no one will believe him. You see... he's a junkie!

There is also plenty of drugs, sex, violence and nuclear explosions!

1973 Tucson - My buds & I

“whoever”... with the net result that foreign money goes into the Clinton’s pockets tax free and is untraceable back to the original donors. A textbook definition of money laundering!

In 2013 the Foundation paid out $8.87M in grants. The majority (62%) went to governments and organizations in the United States. The rest... about 3.5 million... went to individuals or organizations outside the country. The Foundation, of course, has “expenses”! Here’s a rundown of 2013:

PERSONNEL COSTS: $30 MILLION (402 employees, which works out to about 75K each. Pretty pricy help for doing “charity” work)

CONFERENCES, CONVENTIONS, MEETINGS: A LITTLE OVER $9 MILLION (it costs as much as they donate to hold meetings and decide who to give the money too!)

PROFESSIONAL FEES: A LITTLE OVER $9 MILLION (the guys who keep them out of the shit? (No wonder they can continue this fu#king scam.)

GRANTS: (as indicated above) – ABOUT $8.8 MILLION (they take 90 million in and give out ~ 9 million... not bad, Ponzi would be proud)

TRAVEL: ABOUT $8.5 MILLION (almost as much as the “grants”... they spend as much traveling around as they give out! Fu#king amazing they can get away with this kind of sleazy shit!)

OFFICE EXPENSES: ABOUT $5 MILLION (Pricy real estate)

DEPRECIATION: ABOUT $5 MILLION (What does a “charity” have to “depreciate”?)

“OCCUPANCY???”: ABOUT $4 MILLION (whatever “occupancy” is... fu#king amazing they are allowed to expense this out.)

UNCLASSIFIED EXPENSES: ABOUT $2.6 MILLION (“unclassified”???... Must be something like “occupancy”)

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: – ABOUT $2 MILLION (e-mail and computer servers???)

FUND RAISING EXPENSES: – $1.2 MILLION (maybe if put into “travel expenses” it would look bad?)

COST OF GOODS SOLD: – ABOUT $1 MILLION (A “charity” that sells shit... now that is interesting!)

ADVERTISING: – ABOUT $600 THOUSAND (Yep that’s right Citizens over a half a million to “advertise”.)

INSURANCE: – ABOUT $300 THOUSAND (What the fu#k are they “insuring” for that amount?)

ALSO: They own ~ $110 million in “land, buildings, and equipment” ($110 million in assets that allows them to donate $8.8 million!)

They had about $91 million in “cash and equivalents” on hand (a little “nest egg” in case times get tough. Like when Trump is elected and goes after this kind of sleazy shit and puts their sorry asses in jail.) They had about $57.7 million in “receivables”... LOL... from where???

Donors???... Or, like maybe Validimir and that cozy little uranium sales deal, Hillary arranged???. They had about $17 million in “investments”... LOL... like who? The Chinese???. And they had $365k in “other assets”

And last... a fu#king 43.1% PROFIT MARGIN!!! Holy shit!!!!... any investor would want to get in on that action!

Also there is a link between success of this organization and Hillary’s stint as Secretary of State from January 21, 2009 to February 1, 2013. Here’s the scary shit. When you are threatening to fu#k with this kind of money these corrupt motherfu#kers are not going to give up easily and are likely to do evil shit to stay in power including stripping Citizens of their second amendment rights...

We, the People, have one chance to put a stop to this kind of corruption in the upcoming elections. It is unlikely we will ever have another. It is as I predicted in 1993. Don’t believe me... read my book Black Sun - White Sand. Vote Trump!

A “P.S.” on the RNC convention: Marco and Felito need to pick up on the fact they are part of the problem. The People sent them to Washington to do a job. They didn’t do it and now their sorry asses have been kicked down the road. Soon to be followed by additional low-life establishment losers up for election from both parties that didn’t do the job the People elected them to do. The People are fed up with political bullshit!

MY COSTA RICAN RETIREMENT

By Doob: DoobCR@gmail.com

We are enjoying a fairly rain free few weeks that happens every July/August in C.R. This comes just in time for the 2016 World Surfing Games held Aug. 6-14 in the Pacific Coast party town of Jaco Beach. Last year 2015 C.R. took top gold over surfers

from 27
nations that were here. This year 130 surfers from 30 countries are competing for the gold and bragging rights.

On the local Biker scene,
a reunion was recently held in Jaco for SAM/C brothers from chapters in Panama and Costa Rica.
We rented out the World
Famous Beatle Bar/Ho
House in Jaco for Saturday evening. It is finally air conditioned. Chica's were admitted free, and given tickets for free beer as long as they agreed to boob contests and other adult games, at this private x-rated party. No ol' ladies were there so the night was wild and wicked. Crash out rooms were located out back.

What a great country this is. You can't get away with this in South Florida anymore. (Where did those days go...)

So come on

ABATE UPDATE

By Jim "Gambler" Willard,
SE Chapter President
Email: pres@abatese.us

I have been President for one month and what a month it has been. I have been constantly busy with phone calls, emails, reviewing documents, signing documents and meetings. I guess you would say I'm now semi-retired. Once I get a handle on things and become more confident in myself, I'll be able to relax a little. What I mean by that is I'm observing everyone on the board very closely to learn what they are doing. Before I go any further I want to invite everyone to come up to the Peace River Camp Ground, 2995 NW Highway 70, Arcadia FL 34226. Friday October 7th through Sunday October 9th for ABATE of Florida Inc.'s three-day Biker Bash. Plenty of vendors, food, beverages and biker games. Primitive camping is available and there are several hotels close by as well. Check out the ABATE of Florida, Inc website at www.abateflorida.com for additional information and look for their flyers at MC's and our distribution sites.

I just got Back from our annual Leadership Seminar in Vero Beach along with several of my colleagues. It was an informative day for our chapters trustees learning everything from Treasurer, Membership, Safety Director, Delegate and more. Most of these classes I attended. Sunday was the President and Vice-President meeting. Rachet, my VP, and I attended the meeting. Very informative and now we also have a better idea what goes on behind the scenes as well.

On Sunday June 26 we went over to the US Military Vets MC party held at the Tin Cup in Cooper City. For those of you that don't know, the Tin Cup is part of the Cooper City Golf Course, and believe it not it all worked out. Just about everyone showed up and most of the clubs were represented. Thunderhead was playing outside on the grass, under a tent. Our chapter kind of took over the tent next to them. What a great time we had.

Friday night July 1, Mickey's Tiki Bar held their Anniversary party. As always Mickey's is the place to be. Alan always gives his all. Soulcide was playing and if you hear them you can understand why they are one of the top bands in South Florida. By the way, Frank T may not be President any longer but he's still involved and was there with the rest of us.

On Sunday July 10th, a few riders from the SE Chapter went over to the Alternative MC Annual Party. There was food and cold drinks (no alcohol). They told me they had a good time and several clubs showed up. As I said earlier, a group of us was in Vero Beach for our Leadership Seminar and could not attend. Thank you to those that did go.

Following our meeting on July 17th, a group of us rode over to Mickey's to attend the Soldiers for Jesus MC event. Just another great event. They were drink specials, good food and the entertainment was provided by Konnected Party Rock Band. We danced, we laughed, we had a great time.

Look for our chapter at the Tattoo Expo. We'll have a booth there all three days, August 12th through the 14th. Come and look around, stay for the shows, and get a new tattoo. There be plenty of vendors with a

Not much is happening in the legislation right now but when it does you will hear it first at our monthly meeting then in our newsletter which you can read on line at www.abatese.org and in my article here in WOTR. You are all invited to come to an ABATE meeting. It is held the third Sunday of each month at the Moose Lodge # 1798, located at 4483 SW 64 Ave. (Davie Road) Davie.

We at ABATE Southeast Chapter want to thank all the clubs, organizations and independences that support us and I want to promise you we will continue to fight for your rights. Without your support we could not do what we do. And to our advertisers... you are not just advertising your products and services, but you are to helping the biker community (and in WOTR as well). Join ABATE. The dues are only $20.00 a year or $600.00 for a lifetime membership. With your membership you will receive (at no additional charge) a $4,000.00 Accidental Death and Dismemberment Policy.

The Soldiers for Jesus MC has done so much good within our local biker community... from holding funeral and wedding ceremonies, comforting people in distress & need, and praying for them. I needed a prayer for my wife's uncle Dick. He is in very bad shape. He is 84 years old and is struggling with dementia. In addition, he has water in his lungs and blood clots in his arteries. He is at home and he needs constant care which Vicky's aunt Betty cannot provide. As soon as I asked for a prayer for him, several SFJ

On Saturday (07/23) I rode over to the Wheels of Man MC's clubhouse in Deerfield Beach. They hosted their Annual Chili Cook-Off. Everybody was raving how good the seven different dishes tasted. I just took Miami Mike left space at the end of this article open so I could I attend, shoot and write about the Christmas in July Party at Cagney's House of Rock on July 31st, benefitting the Young Hearts Foundation and the Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital. The "Mr. Nice Guy" band was hired to entertain the crowd, and it was a very nice crowd indeed. The turnout was tremendous – thanks to "Mr. Nice Guy" and their following. As usual, they rocked all afternoon long. The dance floor was jam-packed from the time I got there until I left. "Deception" was in the process of setting up inside the bar as I was leaving. The bar was packed as well, with standing room only. Knowing how "Deception" can perform, I am certain that this awesome party went out for hours.

Finally, I would like to invite everybody to come out for the 21st Annual South Florida Tattoo Expo, which will be held at the Coral Springs Marriott from August 12-14th. It should be a lot of fun, with plenty to be seen. Please remember that all proceeds benefit Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital. And to round that weekend up join me to celebrate the Outlaws 49th Anniversary and Moldy's 1%er's birthday at their Dania Beach clubhouse. I hope to see you there. "White Privilege my Ass...

Nowadays it's all about black Privilege and muslim Privilege!"

I'm tired of hearing from journalists, police and others that BLM protests are peaceful... they are not! They were never intended to be. At the time of this writing, five more officers lost their lives and more officers and civilians were wounded... not peaceful at all!

The radical/criminal BlackLivesMatter group organized this protest. Yes radical/criminal I say because any group such as this that calls for the killing of Police Officers and White People are criminals. My guess is that at least 60% to 70% of them are muslims (my opinion). This criminal organization is funded by George Soros and other people and radical groups who should be put down. Our government should come down like a 12lb sledge hammer on vermin. But of course they won't because this is what our POS president wants. He wants our country to burn, this will give him what he wants, a reason to call for martial law. Don't get me wrong there are millions of good blacks in our country along with millions of good whites. Up until 2008 race relations weren't that bad but since obama it has gone straight to hell. Again...this is what he wants. Also, I keep hearing about peaceful muslims, even from patriots. Well... there are no peaceful muslims. If they believe in the quran they are bound heart and soul by their cult/religion to kill, rape and pillage infidels. There are only muslims who haven't committed jihad yet. There's only one way to take care of a rabid dog (and this is what islam is) is to put it down hard and fast!

My humble opinion is that at least 75% or more of all mosques in the world, including right here in America, and our own state of Florida, are armories for jihadists. I could be wrong but...

This is my own personal opinion and no one else's. Semper Fi from an ol' Marine.

Getting on with our local rides and events...

Saturday the 9th of July was an awesome day to ride and we headed to the Navy Seal Museum up in Ft. Pierce. A little hot but so worth it to get out on the bike. Only 93 degrees that felt like 103. (LOL) As long as you were riding or under some shade you were fine. There was a nice breeze which helped. We got to the Navy Seal Museum and started taking it in. It has been completely redesigned since I was there last and they have added many new items. We took our time and walked through the whole museum taking it all in and of course I took a lot of pictures.

Kathy took a few video's as well. This is a Museum well worth visiting if you are ever in the area. It's located at 3300 N. Highway A1A, North Hutchinson Island, Fort Pierce, Zip 34949. Seals are the elite of the elite of the Navy and my respect goes out to any man who makes it through their training and to each man who has lost their life in defense of our country. But they are ready at a moment's notice to lay down their lives for the United States of America. I'm just so sorry they have had to serve the last eight year under obama. I think many of them may still have been alive today if not for him. Also I just don't think a woman can make it through their training. (Again, my personal opinion)

On a Red Forman note (you know, That 70's Show)... there was a dumbass family that allowed their 6 or 7 year old kid to get in a RC Navy Seal Desert Patrol Vehicle (basically a fast dune buggy but armed) which was fine but then he actually started it up. Thank God it wasn't in gear otherwise there would have been lots of damage to a number of displays and people hurt. What a bunch of dumbasses... Needless to say there was a number of former sailors (staff) who were more than a little pissed off.

On Sunday the 17th, Kathy and I met up with our brother Ron and headed to the Soldiers for Jesus MC's Annual at Mickey's. It was really nice to be riding with Ron again. His bike has been down for a few months.

We're glad it's back up and on the road again. It was another beautiful Florida day to be on the road, no rain and lots of sunshine. We got to Mickey's and met up with many brothers and sisters we hadn't seen in a while. Always good to see

As of July 21st, I'm proud to announce that Kathy and I are now married. I want to thank Richard Davis and Helen Davis who officiated our wedding with an awesome ceremony in their backyard. On Sunday the 24th, Richard Davis, Helen Davis, my new bride Kathy and I headed out to Port Mayaca and J&S Fish Camp. Even though there were some nasty clouds heading for us we only got caught in the rain for about a mile. It was actually another awesome Florida day for a ride.

That's it for this month so till next time we hope to see ya on the road.

The rumors are true... I rode one leg of the Hoka Hey Motorcycle Challenge. I still need a Hernia operation and for quite a while my doctor would not let me ride. Finally I got the green light AFTER the competition had started in California with the first check point in Billings Montana. I rode out to Decatur, IL and started my run from there. This is the first major endurance run that I have ridden since my record setting Pan American Run in 2015. I did ride the Iron Butt Association's run at their annual banquet, 1,000 miles in 24 hrs, but that was NOT as challenging as the Hoka Hey! But first...

I want to congratulate Mike Haggard, my fellow WOTR Moto-Journalist, on his marriage to Kathleen. I helped make her single by getting her divorced. Mike showed up late due to the downtown parking situation, but I had already divorced her when he showed up. Then I walked down to the 2nd floor and hooked them up with the marriage application. I love Mike and Kathleen and wish them BOTH a happy and prosperous marriage! NOW, back to my regularly scheduled article...

What an adventure sleeping next to my bike, grinding out hard sweaty miles, turning left and right through rain, sweltering heat, and at night the cold, which demanded me to pull out my electric heated gear. Remember folks... there are no bad weather days to ride just bad gear. I guess that's why so many stayed home for the Toys in the Sun Run??? Don't do it again this year - please show up for the kids.

I got soooooo lost in the Kentucky Mountains because if you miss a turn you got to go back and find that turn. At night you can't see signs or they may have been removed for some reason. Many of the poorer states don't maintain their roads let alone keep up on road signs. In my opinion, I can state with certainty that Florida has the BEST maintained roads. The N.E. United States has the shittiest roads, probably because they are big welfare states. I ran over potholes so big you could bury a full grown dog in them. I tell ya what though, I miss these types of runs and it did me good in my head to get out there and ride my ass off even if it was for a leg as allowed by the rules.

For 2016 I must state with a sense of local pride that a South Florida (Margate) boy AGAIN took first place. Mr. Federico Arbelaez, yes... the same Federico that helped me by shipping me two new front discs to Columbia after I rode all of South America heading north with NO front brakes. That same Federico took the first place cup riding his 2013 Electra Glide Ultra Limited 110 Anniversary model. The HHMC 2014 winner declined to participate this year so the question is still unanswered on who is the better long distance endurance rider??? US Fleet Tracking verified that Federico accurately finished the arduous 9,487-mile challenge in 10-days, 7-hours, and minutes to take first place! Everyone stated that this year's HHMC was the MOST difficult run ever. The best part is that this year there were NO fatalities on the HHMC. In the past there were those that did not make it home but last year they were honored. In 2015, rather than hold a Challenge, we honored the memory of those who lost their lives while participating in the Hoka Hey Motorcycle Challenge. Those honored were Charles Lynn (6/26/2010), Kenneth Greene (7/4/2010), John Anderson (6/26/2013), Newton Pereira (7/27/2014), and others who have died believing in the ideals that were set forth when the Hoka Hey Motorcycle Challenge kicked off in 2010. This special event is open to the public (you did not have to be a Hoka Hey rider to participate) and started at the Geographical Center of the Continental United States. The run departed on the morning of July 31st, 2015 and rode as a group to the Black Hills of SD. On August 1st, we reconvened to parade down Main St.

Sturgis and ended at the Indian Motorcycle Sturgis store, where we were welcomed with a party that was worthy of our Fallen Riders! I was just getting back from my Pan American run and was sorta broke so I did not go.

As I mentioned about the riding gear and some of you cry-babies that did not come out to support the children for the Toys in the Sun Run, here is your chance to make amends and get back on my good side. The South Florida Tattoo Expo is here August 12th, 13th, and 14th. The Expo will be held at the Coral Springs Marriott. Remember, this Expo benefits Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital, so come out and support a good cause while having a great time! They have lots of exciting new things planned for this year, as they do every year - live fetish shows, suspension, lots of artists and vendors, Hot Rod Car Show on Sunday, Live Music all weekend, celebrity guest appearances and more - so you don't want to miss it! Expo hours are 12-1am Friday 12-1am, Saturday and 12-7 on Sunday. Admission is $20/day or $40 for a 3-day pass. I will be setting up in two locations this year so come out and say hey!

I was scheduled to set up at the Christmas in July event hosted at the Carolina Ale House in Weston. However, I was pulled away on important business but was told the party was off the freaking chain. Santa Ed informed me of all the good things that happened. If you see Santa Ed tell him Gabe is looking for him to give him the $500 donation I pledged. If you want to donate cash to Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital find Santa Ed or come down to the Tattoo Expo in Coral Springs.

For those of you riding out to Sturgis I have to warn you it's hot as shit out there. People are dying because of the heat. What helps me is I mix my water 50/50 with Pedialyte to hydrate my body and keep my mind clear. The brain needed electrolytes to function well so when riding on uncharted roads keep yourself hydrated. At night it gets chilly, especially in the mountains, so pack up those sweaters to wear under your leather or just buy some heated gear. Either way have fun and ride safe... Hope to see you at the Tattoo Expo.

“At the end of life we will not be judged by how many diploma’s we have received, how much money we have made, how many great things we have done. We will be judged by ‘I was hungry and you gave me to eat, I was naked and you clothed me, I was homeless and you took me in.’ Hungry not only for bread — but hungry for love. Naked not only for clothing — but naked for human dignity and respect. Homeless not only for want of a room of bricks — but homeless because of rejection.” ~ Mother Teresa

On Sunday June 26th I witnessed a community come together to give back to a couple who tirelessly give of their time, money, energy, and love to help support charities, individuals and our community. Sherry and Pat Palmer are the epitome of benevolence, and when they needed help to fight their battle to save Chit Chat’s Bar, people were lining up to offer assistance. Brian Kudlac and the Deception band family pulled together an unbelievable charity event that started early in the afternoon and lasted until late evening with the amazing and talented Jimi Robinette (who knew he was an auctioneer) along with Riverdown closing the night.

Everyone was well entertained with an incredible lineup of talent which included Deception, Riverdown, Furious George, Rough Shot, Spank, Shovelhead, White Noise, Lazy Bones & War Pigs and Crush, along with individual musicians who filled in with the bands. The volunteers who collected money at the door, sold t-shirts, raffle tickets, and the 50/50, worked all day and into the night. Sherry and the staff made sure that every customer was well taken care of and Pat manned the grill and prepared a tempting feast to feed the hungry crowd.

The music was fantastic, the bar was packed, the drinks were flowing, people were dancing, but most importantly money was raised and Sherry and Pat went to court to win the first round of their fight!

Every night I go to bed and pray for peace. Our world has become scary to me and the violence is unnerving, but then I look around and see my friends. I see love, kindness, generosity and good, and my faith is restored.

By the way, August 29th will be my first year anniversary of returning home, and in case I haven’t said it lately... I’m happy to be back! I’m out, with Lipstick & Leather On!

The Fourth of July came and went with a BANG! We all had a lot of fun at the lovely Heidi and Buster's 2nd Annual Fourth of July (biker/pool) party!

They are great hosts, and we enjoyed the live music from the Double Standard Band, rockin us!

There was plenty of good food and friends!! The pool was amazing, cause it is always hot this time of year!! We finished the evening off at our friend, Hopper's with some awesome fireworks (and more food)!

Happy Birthday America!!!

Later that week we were surrounded by cancer moon-children; birthdays everywhere! Julio, our lovely Chica's: Joiee Kallay, Annie Kramps Touvi, Gina Fox, myself and Debbie Treutle - Tufo, Tommy and Miami Mike. (Whom I have yet to spank!) I wish and hope you all had joyous occasions! I enjoyed my sunsets in the lower Keys!

On Sunday we had to say goodbye to a lovely couple who are moving away from the area. My dear friend, Jeanene and her husband, Puck, are relocating. I am very sad and I will miss them, but I wish them nothing but the Best life has to offer in their New Beginnings. May Godspeed!

Well I'm back. It felt great to be off for a month, I could get used to that...

Anyway, let me start off by saying, if you need your motorcycle or car or truck rims fixed, or new or painted rims, go see my friend Carlos at "Wheel Fix It", on Broward Blvd., 2 lights west of I-95. He did a terrific job fixing the rim on my bike, then he set me up with new rims and tires for my car at a super price. When you go down there mention you read about his store right here and use my name, Jack Jr., to get a discount. Carlos will treat you right. See his ad below right for details and check out his website at:

www.WheelFixItCustoms.com.

On another topic... Catherine and I took Miami Mike and Sharon to Marino's Italian restaurant on 441 near the Hard Rock for his birthday, the bill costing me twice his age so you know it was expensive... but we had a great meal and a great time. (JJ... Just wait til I turn 40... MM)

We didn't eat chili but there was plenty of it at the Wheels of Man MC's Chili Cook-Off. I had a good time tasting all the chili that was in the contest. You know what it means when you eat all that chili??? The next day was a "rough one"...

I had a real good time this month and I wish I could have made it to more events but with my job I don't have as much time as I used to with my old job. As you can see from the photo below, I work way out in the Everglades. Some people hate going to work but I love what I do, although it's not a job that just anyone can do... or would want to do. How many gators did you wake up by accident last week?

So until next month, I'm off into the glades on my airboat. Jack Jr.

FREDDY'S AI BARS & BANDS

By Freddy: AIPromotionsGroup@aol.com

Wow what a hot summer it's been so far. Not just with the weather I'm talking about events, bands and great venues. It's been one event after another with great bands everywhere and it's been hard to choose where to go.

One event I was happy to go to was on Sunday July 24th. I went to the Christmas in July Party at the Carolina Ale House in Weston, hosted by the Dellenbach Foundation, Santa Ed, Wings of Gold MC and many other great organizations. This family friendly event was a hit. The staff at The Carolina Ale House were fabulous. Some of the children from Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital were there with their families. I can tell you one thing after meeting and talking with these children and their families, you will have tears in your eyes no matter who you are, so keep donating to help these children who need our help. Beside having complimentary food and complimentary goody's, like pop corn, cotton candy and Christmas cookies which were fantastic, there was also ice skating with snow, magicians, face painting, arts & crafts, finger painting, bounce house's and Santa with presents for all the children that came. And for the big and little kids there was appearances by Dennis Wheelie, Gator Boys & Tunes For Tots, plus a concert by the great country and rock band, The Shane Duncan Band, who went on when it started to rain. Big shout out to Shane Duncan and his band who played right through the rain which only lasted a half an hour. The event was a huge success and everyone had a great time.

About The Shane Duncan Band who I have not seen in about a year, sorry to say. In one word... "amazing"! THE SHANE DUNCAN BAND is a High Energy Country Rock Band from right here in South Florida that delivers a Non Stop show that leaves you wanting more. What makes The Shane Duncan Band unique is being the total package. After being the support act for artists the last several years, not only does the band do great cover songs, the band writes, records and performs all of their original music. The Shane Duncan Band has performed at Wounded Warrior events for Hall of Fame QB Jim McMahon during the NFL Super Bowl in Indianapolis as well as events for The Country Music Awards in Las Vegas for The Nash Vegas Show.

They have also been fortunate enough to support acts from Luke Bryan to Blake Shelton, and many more. The band played at the Gas Monkey live in Dallas, TX, seen on the Hit TV show Fast and Loud. They were also featured as a band on The Hit Show South Beach Classics, seen on the Discovery/ Velocity channel in January 2015 where they also penned the opening track for the show. Recently The Shane Duncan Band performed at the Daytona 500 and The Winstar World Casino 400 in TX with The Make Motorsports Race Team and is now affiliated with Make Motorsports and features a fully wrapped vehicle at select races. The band currently has a single, Get Your Drink Up, charting in America as well as many other countries in Europe. The Shane Duncan Band currently has more than 25,000 social media fans and their original songs are being played on radio all over the world. If you have not seen The Shane Duncan Band lately, go check them out the next chance you get... you will not regret it!

Want some Hard Rock and Metal South Florida! Well get ready for the next great band to come out the South Florida area to rock across the universe. I'm talking about CLOCKWORK REVOLUTION. Clockwork Revolution formed in 2015, featuring former members of Yngwie Malmsteen's Rising Force, Crimson Glory, Kamelot and Kinlin. Clockwork Revolution is singer Wade Black, drummer Patrick

Johansson, bass player Dirk Van Tilborg & guitarist Dewayne Hart. The band delivers a powerful sound that draws from both modern and classic metal. Currently Clockwork Revolution has been mastering their debut album and the band has currently released their debut video "Give Me the Reins". The video can be seen here

<https://youtube/DOXw7lJ81TE> or on the band's official website www.clockrev.com. The band's website also contains audio samples of the debut album available for streaming. Clockwork Revolution wrote and recorded the 10 original tracks in August and November of 2015. The album has been mixed and is currently being mastered for a 2016 release. Singer Wade Black talking about the debut album, said I've been in the music business a long time. All I can say about Clockwork Revolution is great musicians plus chemistry equals an album I'm really legendary metal bands as Crimson Glory, Seven Witches, Leatherwolf, Leash Law, and War of Thrones. His voice is featured on more than a dozen albums and his music has been featured in major motion picture soundtracks. He has toured the world and performed at major metal festivals, in addition to hundreds of regular tour shows. Patrick Johansson Drums. Originally from Sweden, Patrick is a recording & touring artist with Yngwie Malmsteen for past 13 yrs. He has also toured with WASP, Lynch Mob, George Lynch, G3 Tour (Joe Satriani/ Malmsteen/Steve Vai), the Guitar Gods Tour (Yngwie Malmsteen/ Bumblefoot/Uli Jon Roth/Gary Hoey) and recently with Ozzy Osbourne guitarist Gus G. Patrick, who has recorded over 50 albums & countless videos both in Europe and USA, never stops drumming through constant recording sessions, lessons, clinics, and workshops. He is an endorsed artist with Pearl Drums, Zildjian Cymbals & Vic Firth Sticks. Dirk Van Tilborg Bass & Vocals. Born in San Francisco and raised in Sarasota Florida, bassist Dirk Van Tilborg has been playing professionally since the age of 15. Since the 1980s, he performed and/or recorded with metal bands such as Alias, Attakk, Kamelot and Crimson Glory and performed across the US and Europe including at the Montreux Jazz Festival, Rocklahoma, and other festivals and venues. While touring, he has opened for such bands such as Ace Frehley, Nightranger, White Lion and Rough Cut. His band, Big Deal, used to regularly sell out LA's Sunset Strip clubs such as The Roxy, The Whiskey, The Troubador and Gazzari's. He has recorded 8 records and his influences include Jaco Pastorius, Steve Harris and John Paul Jones. Dirk prefers Spector basses, GK amps, Hartke cabinets, and Mooer effects pedals. Dwayne Hart Guitar & Vocals. Florida native Dwayne Hart's passion for music started with his Grandfather's hillbilly country playing, but quickly turned to rock & roll when he heard Lynyrd Skynyrd, Van Halen, Led Zeppelin, and AC/DC on the radio. Those influences quickly drove him down the path to playing hundreds of shows and logging countless studio hours. He has since engineered and/or produced over 20 albums and with his band Kinlin has opened for such bands as Dokken, Winger, Queensryche, Testament, Warrant, Buckcherry, Puddle of Mudd, Chevelle and 3 Days Grace. In addition Dwayne also had one of the top country, southern rock & classic rock cover bands in South Florida. Skwirls Gone Bad who packed venues everywhere they played. I for one, am very happy that these four great local musicians have come together to bring this new project to our South Florida music scene and beyond! Look for this amazing band of great talented musicians and fabulous vocals coming to a venue near you. For interviews and additional information about Clockwork Revolution, Please visit the CLOCKWORK REVOLUTION website at www.clockrev.com.

The 21st Annual South Florida Tattoo Expo is at the Coral Springs Marriott Located at 11775 Heron Bay Boulevard Coral Springs. Please remember that the proceeds of The Annual South Florida Tattoo Expo benefits Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital! So Come Out And Support This Great Cause!

Coming October 9th 2016. It has been four years since we at A1 promotions have done an anniversary party! The last anniversary party we had 13 bands who offered to play with over 700 friends in attendance. And it was a great day. All the money we made on raffles were donated to charity. So we are going to do it again! With another 12 bands October 9th at VFW POST 1966 Fort Lauderdale, starting at noon We are also making this event a meet and greet for all local business's, so they can give out flyers, business cards and meet people! Everyone is welcome including kids! There is no door charge and everything from food to drinks will be very affordable. Vendors can set up. And we at A1 Promotions make a challenge to every bar in South Florida! We challenge you and your staff to come to our event and check out the bands who will be playing. You never know, you just might find that band you're looking for to play at your place! For more events coming in August see page 33 and follow me or A1 Promotions on Facebook.

Before I finish I want to mention two club events I attended. First was the Fly~In Wheels MC Christmas in July party at Flossies. Huge attendance and everyone was having a blast. Peggy Sue and the inside gals were working their tails off getting cold drinks to the thirsty patrons while Eclipse was rocking the outside stage. I had a great time as I'm sure everyone who was there did too. The other club event I attended was at the Dirty White

Boys MC clubhouse. They were having a July Birthday Bash for their club members plus they patched a new member, Pigpen, and a wedding proposal was made by Lee Lee to Slim. Good times with some really nice people.

Sturgis 2016

The Views you'll see alone are enough to Urge us, To load the bikes and head out to the bike event in Sturgis...

The event has grown so much in the 76 year history, But no matter how many times you go, You'll uncover some new mystery...

I've always heard amazing things, But had not one iota. What amazing things I'd find in Sturgis, South Dakota...

From the Badlands to Mount Rushmore there are so many things to see. A small town named "Aladdin" The population only Fifteen...

Accommodations there are plenty A hotel or pop a tent, The locals are so into the event, Their yards are all for rent...

If you can make the trip there, it's worth every single dime. Make sure you give yourself A lot of extra time...

So head on up to Sturgis Let your Bike carry your load. Ride sober and safe, and keep your Wheels on the Road.

dishonest, unethical, pathological liar OUT of the White House... a liar who will be in the position to place 2 or 3 liberal Supreme Court judges, that will transform this conservative court (after 45 years) to liberal until at least 2050. You can say good-bye to the 2nd Amendment, campaign finance laws, the death penalty and more gun control, and many other laws that Clinton can think of changing. Imagine if she makes Obama a Supreme Court Judge... I for one don't want to hear about him after Jan 20th other to hear President Trump say he is going to investigate Obama's background like it should have been investigated before he was put into office. And keep in mind that this un-elected (by the people) position is a lifetime position for all Supreme Court Judges. I'll be long dead, cremated and gone if a conservative is ever placed on the Supreme court while Clinton is president. I could be dead even sooner if she is put in the White House and she happens to read this. Hopefully Clinton's cronie, Debbie WassherFace Shultz stopped reading WOTR once Allen West was elected to Congress and Willie Woo stopped writing about having awful sex with her...

On events that Sharon and I attended... we only were able to do a few. On July 9th, we went over to Flossie's for the Fly~In Wheels MC's Christmas in July Party. This was the very first party of this type and Trigger and his club members know what it takes to have fun. After paying $3/$5 you were treated to a very good free buffet. There were a few vendors, some raffle items and live music by Eclipse, who put on a

Don't say we didn't warn you after reading his articles.

Hi Peeps... Things here are going Great! Mr Trump is going to kick that corrupt bitch's ass this November! Debby Whatshername Shits was thrown under the bus. Ahhh, life is good!

I'm collecting all the parts needed for my Honda chopper. I have a shit load of parts back from the chromer and he really knows how to make them beauteeful! I found an old EME girder front end on Ebay and it's being rebuilt. The EME girder was the only (as far as I know) one that was built without any welds on the legs. The whole thing was bolted together. The two legs were flame cut out of 5/8 inch steel plate! The thing is one heavy sumbitch! It's amazing what 35-40 years will do to steel! Just taking it apart to clean it up and disassemble it was a mission. It's almost all finished now. I had to find new bronze bushings and have Teflon washers made. It had acorn nuts holding it together and a couple were so rusted on the threaded shafts that nothing would get them off. Penetrating oil, heat, nothing worked. Finally, Mr. Dremel was brought out and did his trick. As soon as the cap nuts were cut in half, a tap with Mr. Hammer and Mr. Chisel finally did the trick and they were off. I ran a die over the threads on the ends of the shafts and they are as good as new. There was a lot more to what was done than that, but that's about all I'll speak about now. By the end of August it should be finished. When it is, I'll post some pic's of it!

The weather's been so darn hot I really haven't done too much outside. Even the fur babies just go out to piddle and poop and then want to get back into the air conditioning! Who says they are "dumb animals"? Little Nappy, the runt, is still the smallest one of the puppies. He only weighs 96 pounds. His bigger brother Tank weighs 110 lbs. They are 14 months old now and I still have a hard time believing how fast the time went. I caught them all as they slipped out of their mom, Precious! She is a wonderful mother. When the pups start to play too rough, she'll chase them apart. They still have the utmost respect for those teeth of hers! She is such a loving Lady to me. She is my 127 lbs lap dog! She is also incredibly strong. Thank God she loves me. Thank God they ALL love me. Now that the pup's are big do they ever EAT! I feed them "Taste of the Wild", no grains and NO CHICKEN anything. Only minor problem is that they go through a bag and a half to two bags a week. The problem with THAT is two bags hits me with a weekly food bill of $101.57. I drive a 1999 chevy S-10 with a little over 200,000 miles on it. If I didn't have the dogs, I could be driving any new car or truck I felt like. Screw the vehicles. I LOVE my furbabies so much more that a 4 wheeled piece of shit! Besides, I'd ride in a wheelbarrow as long as someone else was pushing it!

Every day I get happier than the last knowing that the piece of commie shit and his sow wife will be out of the White House! I do however really like the New York Times newspaper. The pages are big and there are a lot of them and they always have lots of pictures of the demoncrats, especially barry obammbamm and his sow. I always make sure to put the pictures face up in the room where the furbabies do their piddle'n'pooping while they are in the house while I'm at work. There's an old Jewish blessing that sort of goes like this, "He should be so rich, he should have seven mansions, one for every day of the week. He should have seven limousines with seven drivers, one for each day of the week. Every day he should wake up in a different house, get in a different limo with a different driver and go to a different doctor and nobody should know what's wrong with him." Mr. prez, that's what I wish for you.

On that happy and joyous note I will take my leave of you all! Remember, "DON'T BE A CHUMP.....VOTE FOR TRUMP!!!"

Till next time, be well and be safe, Uncle Willie.

"Hear No Evil, See No Evil, and Speak No Evil"

This maxim or proverb, that originated in 17th Century Japan (using 3 monkey's as symbols), seems to apply to the Obama Administration and to Hillary Clinton. In the Western world, the phrase is often used to refer to people who deal with impropriety by "turning a blind eye" to it, or as someone with a lack of moral responsibility by looking the other way or by feigning responsibility. Do Obama and Hillary meet that criteria?

The four major scandals of the Obama Administration, along with Hillary as Secretary of State, have the fingerprints of that proverb all over them including 1) Fast and Furious (selling arms to Mexican drug cartels), 2) the Benghazi attack (where 4 Americans were murdered, including our Ambassador to Libya, 3) the targeting and harassment, by the I.R.S., of Conservative groups, by refusing them charitable tax status, and 4) the use, against State Dep't. Policy, of a private e-mail server by Hillary in the conduct of her duties.

Listening to Obama and Hillary, and their hand-picked spokesmen and aides, they really adhere to the proverb, "hear no evil, see no evil, and speak no evil" in order to deflect from their incompetence, ineptness, and possible dereliction of duty. And in the case of Hillary, the possibility of committing a crime.

Of course, in the case of "Fast and Furious", no one in the White House or the Attorney General's office (under Eric Holder) knew that guns were being shipped to Mexican drug cartels - according to them, it was all done by lower level Justice Dep't. Officials. But in the meantime, pertinent documents regarding this matter, were withheld that would have most likely shown who authorized this debacle, by using executive privilege as a roadblock to getting these documents. Where's the openness and transparency that Obama promised in his campaigns?

When it came to Benghazi, Obama and then Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, knew nothing about the lack of security at our compound and annex in Benghazi, even though numerous memo's were sent by Ambassador Chris Stevens and his Ass't. Gregory Hicks, alerting Washington of the danger months before the horrendous attack took place, causing the death of 4 Americans and the ambassador. After the attack, and for weeks thereafter, the powers-to-be told the world the attack was prompted by a stupid anti-Muslim video that no one saw. They refused, for weeks, to admit that this attack was a terrorist attack by a group affiliated with Al-Queda, and to this day, they still fumble with the word "Islamist terrorist" in explaining what went on that fateful day of 9/11/12. Did the upcoming presidential election have anything to do with their pronouncements? It was obvious, wasn't it?

In regards to the I.R.S. targeting and harassing Conservative groups, at the time, as they applied for preferential tax status, President Obama was asked if he knew about actions of the I.R.S., He stated that he only found out about it in the media like everyone else did. Is he for real? Is he not the President of the United States, and did he not appoint the various commissioners of the Internal Revenue Service. Well, if you believe what he said, then I have a bridge in Brooklyn I'd like to sell you.

The most recent scandal, was about involving Hillary's use of a private e-mail server, which has brought about an investigation by the F.B.I. looking into whether or not Hillary committed a crime by putting our national security at risk by using an unsecured e-mail sever against State Dep't. rules and regulations. She has offered one lie after another, which the State Dep't. Inspector General has pointed out quite clearly. As of this writing, the F.B.I. recommended no "indictment" even though all the evidence pointed to a violation of the civil code by Hillary Clinton. Since that meeting between Bill Clinton and A/G Loretta Lynch on the tarmac in Phoenix, you could assume that the fix was in. After all, she worked for Obama and he didn't want an indictment to screw up his legacy.

Obama and Hillary firmly believe that they are "teflon coated" and that none of these scandals will bring them down. You could deduce that the proverb of "hear no evil, see no evil, and speak no evil" has been adopted by both Obama and Hillary and they have perfected it like no two other people.

TRACKSIDE WITH CHUCK

KillerInstinctPhotos@gmail.com

I would like to start off by saying I hope everyone had a safe and festive 4th of July. This month has been a very slow month for racing, especially for Palm Beach International Raceway. They have been closed for renovations. They were also in the middle of personnel changes. Manager Bill Murray left the position to relocate to Kentucky and start a new journey in life. He already has a new gig lined up with a local track and I wish him and his family nothing but the best and I'm sure I'm not the only one. So with Bill leaving, PBIR was in the process of looking for a new manager. This also gave them the perfect time to shut down for some much needed renovations. They upgraded the restrooms and corrected some timing issues and upgraded the computer systems. They also spruced up by adding new paint. The biggest upgrading/renovation in my opinion is the bathrooms. They were in dire need of renovations and the track has completely redone them, even adding air conditioning!

When the time came to hire a new manager, corporate decided on not one but two managers to help make things run even smoother. One of the biggest things about the manager position was that they kept it in-house by hiring two guys who spend every weekend at the track, Ben Reeves and Mitch Popi. Both of these guys have busted their ass for this track and it is nice to see them get promoted to run the whole show. With new managers and multiple renovations, I'm looking forward to heading back out to the track to shoot pictures and see everyone. I'm excited to see what these two men will bring to the table and how they will change things.

I was able to attend the Dirty White Boys of Davie 1st Annual July Birthday Bash and what a turnout they had. There was great food, great music and even a marriage proposal. The music was provided by Hired Gunz and a special congratulations goes out to Thomas (Slim) Hellwig and Lee Lee Miller May on their engagement. There was also a special event that took place for Pig Pen and I will just quote the boss, Mike Shoemaker, "We call him Pig Pen and he is a hard, hard worker who put about a year's worth of work and money from his own pocket into the club in the 6 month long probation period we give new perspective members. His heart is with the D.W.B. family truly, and he is an outstanding individual with strong moral fiber and the heart to live our life-style". Everyone always has a great time at any of their get togethers. Next time they have one make sure to stop by and check it out, you won't be disappointed.

Next up was a great night at the Pompano Beach Amphitheatre. After a 45 minute lightning delay, the opening act came on. "Jackyl" opened for the one and only "Ted Nugent"! "Jackyl" is a regular from the famed "Full Throttle Saloon" in Sturgis and they kicked ass. The entire act was awesome with great sound and lighting. The capped off their performance with their famous chainsaw act. After they finished up out came Uncle Ted and I tell you what... that brother can still rock like it's the 80's. His show was dedicated to all of our fallen officers. It's always cool when the community recognizes our fallen heroes. The entire show, start to finish, was kick-ass with everything from the sound to the lighting!

My last stop of the month was the Boca Black Room to check out a band I have never had the opportunity of seeing called In the Light of Led Zeppelin, a tribute to Led Zeppelin. The venue was an awesome little place right off of the turnpike and Glades Road. The band was great which included a well-known local female bassist, Autumn Martini. The lead guitarist, Antonio Bolet, was phenomenal and if you closed your eyes you would think you were at an actual Led Zeppelin concert. Antonio came out on stage with a bow to play his guitar for a couple songs and it absolutely blew me away, and I'm sure I wasn't the very energetic show. And speaking of energetic... how the hell does my secret mistress, Peggy Sue, keep up for hours on end pouring drinks, opening bottles and cans for the never ending - always thirsty crowd? She's a South Florida phenomenon who never aged a day since S&I's. And the rest of Pam's staff did a great job feeding and serving everyone. All those involved in this event should take a bow.

The following afternoon I stopped by the Alternative MC's party at their clubhouse. Nice guys that need more support from everyone. You can take an hour from not drinking booze and ride over twice a year, it won't kill ya. They have a nice cold clubhouse and show plenty of hospitality. They always have an excellent buffet for $5 bucks. I was upset they didn't have those fantastic twisty garlic rolls (hint) but they always serve ice cold Monster® drinks which more club parties need to serve. It helps me to stay awake since I'm officially almost as old as Top Hat... and Sonny.

We could not make the Soldiers for Jesus MC Annual or the Wheels of Man Chili Cookoff because of some unfortunate circumstances but our writers covered them and you can read about those parties in these pages. However for a brief hour on Saturday, July 30th, I stopped by Candy's Cycle for the Partspalooza party. Gina was giving away free burgers, hot dogs and drinks. There was a special ceremony for Gunny. Gina presented him with a framed photo of his comrades in arms who were all killed in Vietnam. He was the only man left. After signing the photo it was hung on the wall next to the Stars & Stripes. All vets in attendance signed the wall, and WOTR readers who would like to do so can sign the wall at Candy's. No invitation needed, just stop in, tell them where you served, climb the ladder (help can be provided) and write what you want to say. Nice event... plan on attending other

I also was on deadline to finish this issue so there was no time for me to attend the Christmas in July event at Cagney's.
